Not allowing assets management companies to manage PFs

359. SHRI RAJKUMAR DHOOT: Will the Minister of LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that private and public asset management companies will not be allowed to manage provident funds;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and

(c) whether Government proposes to ensure profitable returns to employees for their additional contribution towards provident funds?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI OSCAR FERNANDES): (a) to (c) No, Sir. The Provident Fund corpus under Employees' Provident Fund Organisation has been assigned for investment to the following four portfolio managers on 17.09.2008:

(i) HSBC Asset Management Company

(ii) ICICI Prudential Asset Management Company

(iii) State Bank of India

(iv) Reliance Capital Asset Management Company

So far, the entire corpus was managed by a single fund manager i.e. State Bank of India. In order to have greater efficiency and lower cost of fund management and for optimisation of returns, it has been decided to have multi fund managers. Further, investment of funds is to be made as per the Pattern of Investment prescribed by the Government. The present investment
